DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-17, 23-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Messner (U. S. Patent Number 6,370,514).

Regarding claim 1, Messner discloses essentially all the claimed invention as set fourth in the instant application, further Messner discloses a method for marketing and redeeming vouchers for use in online purchases. In addition Messner discloses a method comprising: receiving an electronic order for at least one good or service (which reads on purchaser selects gift certificate option) from a first party (which reads on purchaser) ; receiving information about the first party (which reads on “It is preferable that the purchaser 90 supply his name and at least one "address" (preferably, the purchaser will supply both a mailing and an e-mail address) as a part of the purchase” as disclosed in column 8 lines 47-50); transmitting information which will be necessary to process the order (which reads on purchaser selecting delivery option) to a second party (which reads on “over the phone, at a brick and mortar store, at a virtual mall, or a merchant web site on-line, or at the web site of the operator of the certificate system” as disclosed in column 3 lines 4-7); transmitting less information about the first party to the second party than was received (which reads on “Once the purchase form is completed and payment is approved, the voucher server 54, and associated business processes then attempt to deliver the gift certificate 100” as disclosed in column 9 lines 51-53); and transmitting a voucher to the second party (which reads on “Delivery of the voucher, according to the method selected by the purchaser, is then attempted” as disclosed in column 3 lines 15-17) and at the second party (which reads on “over the phone, at a brick and mortar store, at a virtual mall, or a merchant web site on-line, or at the web site of the operator of the certificate system” as disclosed in column 3 lines 4-7), filling the order for the good or service (which reads on goods/services shipped as exhibited in figure 2B).

Regarding claims 2,8 Additionally Messner discloses transmitting no information about the first party to the second party (which reads on Once the purchase form is completed and payment is approved, the voucher server 54, and associated business processes then attempt to deliver the gift certificate 100” as disclosed in column 9 lines 51-53).

Regarding claims 3, 9 Additionally Messner discloses 3. The method of claim 1, further comprising transmitting selected information about the first party to the second party, wherein transmission of the selected information is authorized by the first party (which reads on column 9 lines 51-53).

Regarding claims 4, 10 Additionally Messner discloses comprising retrieving information from a database concerning the first party, and selecting information about the first party for transmission to the second party based on the retrieved information (which reads on column 9 lines 51-53).

Regarding claims 5,11 Additionally Messner discloses retrieving records from a database concerning the first party comprises retrieving directives describing the information to be withheld from the second party (which reads on column 9 lines 51-53).

Regarding claims 6, 12 Additionally Messner discloses receiving information about the first party comprises receiving information about the first party from a subscriber identity module (which reads on column 8 lines 47-50).

Regarding claims 7, Messner discloses essentially all the claimed invention as set forth in the instant application, in addition Messner discloses a article comprising a computer-readable medium which stores computer-executable instructions for receiving and transmitting information (which reads on "The term "Internet" will be used throughout this document. As used herein, "Internet" means a network of machines accessible to/by multiple users, the machines having the capability, using a common communication protocol, of communicating pursuant to programming commands or information input by users" as disclosed in column 1 lines 61-65), the instructions causing a machine to, receiving an electronic order from a first party (which reads on "purchasing or receiving vouchers, such as: over the phone, at a brick and mortar store, at a virtual mall, or a merchant web site on-line, or at the web site of the operator of the certificate system" as disclosed in column 3 lines 4-7); receiving information about the first party (which reads on "It is preferable that the purchaser 90 supply his name and at least one "address" (preferably, the purchaser will supply both a mailing and an e-mail address) as a part of the purchase" as disclosed in column 8 lines 47-50); a transmitting information that will be necessary to process (which reads on purchaser selecting delivery option) to a second party (which reads on "over the phone, at a brick and mortar store, at a virtual mall, or a merchant web site on-line, or at the web site of the operator of the certificate system" as disclosed in column 3 lines 4-7); transmitting less information about the first party to the second party than was received (which reads on "Once the purchase form is completed and payment is approved, the voucher server 54, and associated business processes then attempt to deliver the gift certificate 100" as disclosed in column 9 lines 51-53); and transmitting a voucher to the second party (which reads on "Delivery of the voucher, according to the method selected by the purchaser, is then attempted" as disclosed in column 3 lines 15-17) and at the second party (which reads on "over the phone, at a brick and mortar store, at a virtual mall, or a merchant web site on-line, or at the web site of the operator of the certificate system" as disclosed in column 3 lines 4-7), filling the order for the good or service (which reads on goods/services shipped as exhibited in figure 2B).

Regarding claims 13-17, Messner discloses essentially all the claimed invention as set forth in the instant application, in addition Messner discloses a system comprising: a processor (which reads on a voucher server) and a database (which reads on page column 12 lines 2-3), wherein the processor is configured to receive information about a first party (which reads on page column 7 lines 36-43), wherein the processor is configured to receive an electronic transactional order from the first party, wherein the processor transmits (which reads on purchaser selecting delivery option) to a second party (which reads on “over the phone, at a brick and mortar store, at a virtual mall, or a merchant web site on-line, or at the web site of the operator of the certificate system” as disclosed in column 3 lines 4-7), and wherein the database includes information about the first party and directives describing the information about the first party to be transmitted to the second party (which reads on column 7 lines 36-43).

Regarding claims 23-25, Messner discloses essentially all the claimed invention as set forth in the instant application, in addition Messner discloses a method comprising: placing an electronic order with a second party on behalf of a first party (which reads on column 12 lines 2-3; and providing information about the first party to the second party (which reads on adequate funds available); wherein the amount of information provided is a function of consideration from the second party (which reads on confirmation packet transmitted to merchant/mall as exhibited in figure 2A).

Regarding claims 26 - 28, Messner discloses essentially all the claimed invention as set forth in the instant application, in addition Messner an article comprising a computer-readable medium which stores computer-executable instructions for receiving and transmitting information (which reads on The term "Internet" will be used throughout this document. As used herein, "Internet" means a network of machines accessible to/by multiple users, the machines having the capability, using a common communication protocol, of communicating pursuant to programming commands or information input by users” as disclosed in column 1 lines 61-65), the instructions causing a machine to placing an electronic order with a second party on behalf of a first party (which reads on column 12 lines 2-3; and providing information about the first party to the second party (which reads on adequate funds available); wherein the amount of information provided is a function of consideration from the second party (which reads on confirmation packet transmitted to merchant/mall as exhibited in figure 2A).

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 18-22 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-28 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
